

Scholarship Endowment Created in Memory of George Minutaglio Jr.

Carrabba's Italian Grill® and FIU Partner to provide assistance to first-generation students

TAMPA, Fla. (May 31, 2018) – Carrabba's Italian Grill announced a scholarship endowment in honor of George Minutaglio, Jr., former Vice President of Operations who passed away at the age of 48 in January. The George Minutaglio Jr. Carrabba's Italian Grill First Generation Scholarship Endowment will help cover tuition for students who are the first in their families to attend college.

"During his 25-year career in the restaurant industry, George was known for teaching, coaching and inspiring others," said Michael Kappitt, President of Carrabba's Italian Grill. "This scholarship endowment will be part of that legacy and is especially fitting since George was the first generation in his family to receive a college degree."

The scholarship, offered through Florida International University (FIU), will provide two $1,500 scholarships for qualifying students at the Chaplin School of Hospitality & Tourism Management starting in the 2018-2019 academic year. One of the two scholarships will give preference to a first-generation Carrabba's or Bloomin' Brands employee.

"We are grateful to Carrabba's Italian Grill for this commitment to our university," said Howard Lipman, CEO of the FIU Foundation, Inc. "This gift will provide vital support for our students as they pursue a degree in the hospitality field."
